

AN ODE TO MARS by Gail Sprott

the gift of iron

A treasure hunt to be sure!

You can find it ..... if you know where to look.
Deep down in the earth below or in a brook
Maybe up on high in the bright Autumnal skies
While inside you, quietly through your blood it does flow.

Giving you strength where ere you go.

Iron heralds and supports the birth of new things and When it is near you, you'll hear a faint ring bestowing confidence that might make you sing!

So, if you're feeling frail, strung out and consumed, here is a friend who will always prevail.

Mars has an Iron clad family; you see, and they are always ready to serve you and me.

Mars will always help you feel better through and through and no doubt will invite all his fairy friends too.

They will make you laugh, dance, and play,
And all your concerns will disappear by the end of the day.
