

Jasper, the supreme nurturer, the beautiful nature within you -

Radiant sunshine, midnight sky, mysterious forest, golden desert and sweeping mountains.

You colour the world with red, orange, yellow, green, blue and purple.

You provide us the stable foundation ground to stand,
the freedom to walk, the unwavering love to live.

You encourage us to create the world with unselfish beauty.

Through the fire of the sun, the nestling warm air you bring forth, the oxygen you carry as the life substance.

it connects us deeply with the world.

You let us hear the intimate knowledge of the sound of nature,
to experience the scents and tastes of our external world,
to harmonize the warmth of ourselves and others.

You bring new life from the spiritual beings.

You unite the complete family of spiritual powers on the breastplate,
To provide us the strength, the courage and the wisdom to face the world,
To transform the adversarial powers of Lucifer and Ahriman,
To protect human's heart,
from being attacked by the venomous bite of the destructive force.

You empower us to connect with the higher world.
